

OneCollection and House of Finn Juhl are seeking a Furniture Upholsterer in Vejen

Are you passionate about craftsmanship and quality? Would you like to try your hand at upholstering iconic furniture pieces such as the Chieftain Chair and the Poet Sofa? At OneCollection and House of Finn Juhl, we are looking for a furniture upholsterer – or an untrained candidate with strong practical skills – to join our production team in Vejen.

You will become part of a team responsible for upholstering all pieces within the OneCollection and House of Finn Juhl collections. The work requires attention to detail, precision, and good physical stamina, as we handle larger pieces such as sofas and lounge chairs. In return, you will work with some of the finest leathers and textiles on the market. We provide thorough training to ensure you are well prepared for the role.

We expect that you:

Are reliable, positive, and easy to work with
Have an interest in furniture upholstery – experience is an advantage, but not required
Have a strong sense of quality and attention to detail

We offer:

A varied workday in a well-established company with proud craftsmanship traditions
A position with a high degree of independence, where you follow each piece of furniture from start to finish
Competitive salary based on qualifications and pension scheme through Industriens Pension
Health insurance through PFA

Working hours and location:

Gestenvvej 22
6600 Vejen

Monday–Thursday: 6:30 AM – 3:00 PM

Friday: 6:30 AM – 12:30 PM

Does this sound like you?

Send a short application to Allan Steen at as@onecollection.com
If you have any questions, feel free to contact Allan at +45 31 21 07 44.
We conduct interviews on an ongoing basis.