The Chieftain Footstool

This footrest was made for the iconic Chieftain Chair, one of Finn Juhl's absolute masterpieces. Today the Chieftain Chair is perceived as one of the most important exponents of the Danish Modern movement in the US during the 1950s. For this reason, Finn Juhl is often considered the father of Danish Modern. Like the Chieftain Chair, the Chieftain Footstool is manufactured in walnut or oak and upholstered in leather.
