The 57 Sofa

Designed by Finn Juhl in 1957, the 57 Sofa was the first of his designs to be relaunched by the House of Finn Juhl. The sofa's sculptural silhouette is defined by smooth, clean lines, and the tall armrests curve around the seat, creating a cosy and comfortable area. This unique design is truly timeless. The 57 Sofa is manufactured with hand-sewn upholstery in either textile or leather, and the seat is spring-filled. The legs are available in either burnished or stainless steel, and they feature wooden toes in walnut or oak.
